

Manchester Geological Association

Broadhurst Lectures - Saturday 12 November 2011

Williamson Building, University of Manchester, Oxford Road, Manchester

10.30 am start - Booking essential (see form below)

The Coal Measures

Rates of Sedimentation in the Namurian and Westphalian

Dr. Derek Brumhead MBE, Manchester Geological Association

Coal Depositional Environments and Effects on Mining in Northern England

Dr. Paul Guion, Honorary Fellow, University of Derby

The Rise and Fall of the Coal Forests

Dr. Howard Falcon-Lang, Royal Holloway, University of London

Coal Mining in Lancashire,

Alan Davies, formerly Curator, Lancashire Mining Museum

Cost: £7 includes: lecture programme, displays, buffet lunch, refreshments.

Send completed form with cheque (payable to Manchester Geological Association) to
Jim Spencer 3, Merlyn Court, Austin Drive, Didsbury, Manchester M20 6EA
Tel: 0161 434 7977

Further details and enquiries: lectures@mangeolassoc.org.uk

Broadhurst Lectures Saturday - 12 November 2011

Herewith, cheque for £..... to book person(s) for the above event.

Name(s):

Address:

.....

Post Code e-mail tel no

I have the following special dietary requirements

Your receipt will be sent by e-mail.

If you prefer it to be sent by post, please note this in the e-mail space above.

An A5 SAE would be appreciated, thanks.

For notes please send an A4 SAE or collect them on the door.